In Preparation

Rogers, Kimberly B. "Privilege and Social Action."

In Progress

Rogers, Kimberly B. "The Role of Familiarity, Commonality, and Normativity in Cultural Understandings of Event Likelihood."

This research examines the mechanisms of affective alignment and judgments of event likelihood in affect control theory. Data collection is complete and analysis is in progress.

Rogers, Kimberly B. and Kaitlin M. Boyle. "Identity Coherence and Well-Being."

This research examines the role of identity meaning coherence as a source of mental and physical well-being. Data collection is complete and data analysis is in progress.

Rogers, Kimberly B., Jesse K. Clark, Lynn Smith-Lovin, Dawn T. Robinson, and David R. Heise. "Cultural Stability of Impression Dynamics in the United States."

This research compares the structural equations of impression change originally estimated by affect control theorists in 1978 with estimates from a new study. Data collection is complete and data analysis is in progress.
